Hey Gary,
We only have interest in the metal totes.

The poly Hoover line of the pictured products was sold about 20 years ago (called bulk drum tanks).
In order for us to pick up all of the metal tanks the tanks must be cleaned or at a minimum triple rinsed.
Please contact me at below information for any questions, or for discussion.

Thanks....

Kurt Henry

Kurt:

I will check the containers again tomorrow. They are all old containers.
I noticed that you have a recycling sticker on the containers and the number goes to National Container so I assume that you guys have a service contract with them for your containers.

What can you do to assist in the process of disposing of these containers?

Thanks
